Announcement

Head of the Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Lodz University of Technology of ~~07~~ October 2022.

Regarding the deadlines for the submission of documents for courses increasing competences within the task "Skills up! - courses increasing competences of doctoral candidates at IDS" in the Project "Curriculum for advanced doctoral education & training - CADET Academy of TUL" implemented within the STER NAWA programme, for doctoral candidates of the Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Lodz University of Technology in the academic year 2022/2023

Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Lodz University of Technology is pleased to announce the opening of the call for applications within the task "Skills up! - courses increasing competences of doctoral candidates at IDS".

As part of the task, we offer funding for skills enhancing courses, a total of 101 courses for doctoral candidates at the Interdisciplinary Doctoral School of Lodz University of Technology. The courses will be delivered remotely, through Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) course platforms.

The prerequisite is the selection of an online course (Massive Open Online Courses-MOOCs) from the offerings of renowned research centres around the world, listed among the 50 best universities according to the list: <https://www.timeshighereducation.com/world-university-rankings/2022>.

The application must be submitted to the IDS Office, together with the required signatures (on a colour printout) a minimum of 7 days before the start date of the chosen course.

The acceptance of applications has been scheduled from 13.10.2022 to 30.08.2023 or until the funds allocated for the task are exhausted.

More information on the implementation of the task can be found on the bilingual website: <https://ids.p.lodz.pl/en/projects/ster-nawa/courses-doctoral-candidates-skills>

Yours sincerely,

Associate Professor Agnieszka Ruppert Ph.D., D.Sc.
