

Register No.:

Pursuant to the Regulation of the Minister of Health of 26 August 2019 on medical examinations of candidates for secondary schools or universities and for qualifying vocational courses, pupils and students of these schools, students, students of qualifying vocational courses and doctoral candidates (Journal of Laws of 2019, item 1651).

- Doctoral candidate training in the discipline

- Description of the training conditions taking into account information on the presence of hazardous, harmful to health or burdensome and other factors resulting from the manner of performing activities by students:

- I. Physical factors:
- II. Dusts:
- III. Chemical factors:
- IV. Biological factors:
- V. Other factors, including hazardous factors:

3. The medical certificate should be delivered within the deadline by [date of submission of the referral at the IDS TUL Office] to the IDS TUL Office, 116, Żeromskiego St., 90-924 Lodz, daily during office hours (*)

(*) The submission of a medical certificate is a condition for admission to classes in which the above-mentioned hazardous, harmful and burdensome factors occur.