§ 3 Rules and procedure for granting the NAWA scholarship

1. The NAWA scholarship is awarded through an open competition, which is announced by the Head of IDS TUL in accordance with the principles of openness, transparency, respect for equal rights, equal opportunities and non-discrimination.
2. The competition is open to:
 - 1) Foreign doctoral candidates;
or
 - 2) Doctoral candidates from Poland implementing doctoral projects in international cooperation as part of an international doctoral programme, in particular aimed at obtaining a joint degree or a multiple degree, realising their training at IDS TUL and having an Individual Research Plan (IRP) approved by the relevant Discipline Council.
3. In connection with the cessation of cooperation between the Government of the Republic of Poland and the Government of the Russian Federation under the Cooperation Agreement in the field of culture, science and education concluded in Warsaw on 25 August 1993 as a result of the aggression of the Russian Federation against Ukraine, doctoral candidates holding the citizenship of the Russian Federation or cooperating with a research institution, an entity based in the territory of the Russian Federation or a supervisor, an auxiliary supervisor holding the citizenship of the Russian Federation are excluded from participation in the task.
4. Application for the NAWA scholarship, prepared in accordance with the template set out in Appendix 1 with attachments, the Applicant submits at the time and place without architectural barriers specified in the announcement of the Head of IDS TUL published on the IDS TUL website. The announcement of the place and date of submission of applications will be published no later than 4 weeks before the planned date of commencement of the call for applications. Applications can also be sent electronically or by post in accordance with the guidelines of the above-mentioned announcement of the Head of IDS TUL. In the case of a postage delivery, the deadline for submitting the application is determined by the date on which the delivery is received by the Chancellery of TUL.
5. Candidates and Participants who, due to special individual needs, including disability, require special support during the period of accepting applications and implementing the project, are asked to report this fact to the IDS TUL Office within 7 days from the date of the event confirming the disability. Such support will be provided by the Academic Support Unit, Academic Trust Centre or IDS TUL Office as much as possible, as far as organizational, technical and financial possibilities of TUL.

6. Applications submitted after the deadline referred to in section (4), or those that do not meet the formal requirements will not be subject to consideration.
7. The NAWA scholarship is awarded by a committee of at least five people appointed by the Rector at the request of the Chairperson of the Scientific Council of IDS TUL. The composition of the committee is published on the IDS TUL website.
8. The members of the Committee elect the Chairperson and the Secretary from among their members.
9. The Committee is obliged to record its meetings. It is allowed to organize a meeting and vote in whole or in part remotely. A committee meeting is considered valid if at least three members of the Committee are present and all members of the Committee have been notified of the date and form of the meeting.
10. In the event of circumstances preventing a member of the Committee from participating in the work of the Committee or in a situation where the validity of the meeting is threatened, His Magnificence the Rector of TUL, at the request of the Chairperson of the Scientific Council, appoints a new member of the Committee.
11. The Committee is obliged to maintain impartiality and objectivity in the assessment of applications, while maintaining the protection of personal data.
12. If a Applicant's evaluation committee includes a supervisor or auxiliary supervisor, he/she is excluded from the consideration of the application in question, which is reflected in the minutes of the committee meeting.
13. If the Applicants obtain the same number of points, the members of the Committee reserve the right to conduct interviews with these Applicants, if they deem it necessary (face-to-face or online interview). The date of the interview will be agreed with the Applicant.
14. Decisions of the Committee shall be taken by a simple majority of the members present at the meeting of the Committee. In the absence of a majority of votes, the vote of the Chairperson of the Committee shall decide.
15. After evaluating the submitted applications, the Committee draws up a ranking list and awards the NAWA scholarship to the Applicants who obtained the highest number of points.
16. The results of the competition are published on the IDS TUL website in the project tab.
17. Applicants who have not been granted a NAWA scholarship have the right to submit a request for reconsideration to His Magnificence the Rector of TUL within 7 working days from the date of their notification.

§ 4 Amount and period of payment of the NAWA scholarship

1. As part of the project, two editions of the competition are planned:
 - 1) 1st edition – 10 NAWA scholarships for a period of 3 months in the academic year 2025/2026;
 - 2) 2nd edition – 10 Nawa scholarships for a period of 3 months in the academic year 2026/2027.
2. In the event that scholarships are not awarded in a given academic year, NAWA in the number indicated in (1) unused funds will be transferred to the next edition of the competition, enabling the participation of as many doctoral candidates as possible, as well as the organization of an additional call for applications.
3. The NAWA scholarship referred to in § 2 1, is granted in the amount of PLN 5,000.00 gross (five thousand zlotys 00/100) per month, for a period of three months from October to December of a given academic year. The scholarship will be paid in Polish zlotys.
4. The NAWA scholarship is paid in arrears, on the last working day of the month, while the first payment of the Nawa scholarship will take place by the last day of the month following the month in which the results referred to in § 3 (16) with compensation from October of a given academic year, provided that IDS TUL receives funds financed from NAWA.

§ 5 Conditions for granting and paying the NAWA scholarship

1. The NAWA scholarship may be awarded to an Applicant who meets the following criteria:

 - 3) information referred to in point 2) in English
6. The IDS TUL Office will make the relevant logos and information materials available on the Project website.
7. Within 30 days from the end of the period of receiving the scholarship financed from the project, the Participant is obliged to provide the IDS TUL office with a substantive report in accordance with the template set out in Appendix 4 together with information on the publication of the research referred to in §5 (4).
8. If the report referred to in §5 (7) of the method of making the research public, the Participant is obliged to submit subsequent substantive reports (quarterly or upon fulfilment of the above-mentioned obligation, completion of training) at the latest by the end of the academic year in which the NAWA scholarship was collected. In the event of failure to comply with the provisions of the Regulations, the Doctoral Candidate is obliged to return the received NAWA scholarship with interest in the amount specified as for tax arrears in the event that TUL is obliged to return it for reasons attributable to the Doctoral Candidate.

9. The payment of the NAWA scholarship is suspended in the following cases:
 - 1) termination of the co-financing agreement no. BPI/STE/2024/1/00003/U/00001, concluded between Lodz University of Technology and NAWA;
 - 2) completion by the Participant of training at IDS TUL;
 - 3) suspension of training in the cases specified in § 10 of the IDS TUL Regulations;
 - 4) unsatisfactory progress in the preparation of the doctoral dissertation based on the opinion of the supervisor or supervisors or the supervisor and auxiliary supervisor;
 - 5) failure to deliver semester reports/reports within specified deadlines;
 - 6) initiation of administrative proceedings aimed at removing the Participant from the list of doctoral candidates, until the final settlement of the case;
 - 7) receiving support from other sources (to the extent identical or similar to that which can be received under the project) which would result in double financing of expenditure.
10. The decision to suspend the payment of the NAWA scholarship is taken by the Committee. In disputed situations, the Committee takes a decision after consulting the Scientific Council of IDS TUL.
11. The cessation of payment of the NAWA scholarship takes place on the first day of the month following the month in which the circumstance referred to in § 5 (9) occurred.
12. In the event of cessation of payment of the NAWA scholarship, an additional recruitment will be carried out.
13. The Participant shall not be able to waive or relinquish part, or all of their NAWA scholarship amounts to other persons or activities both inside and outside the project.
14. Pursuant to Article 13 (1) and (2) of Regulation (EU) 2016/679 of the European Parliament and of the Council of 27 April 2016 on the protection of natural persons with regard to the processing of personal data and on the free movement of such data, and repealing Directive 95/46/EC (General Data Protection Regulation), Journal of Laws EU.L.2016.119.1, IDS TUL informs that:
